The difference comes as standard With Mercure you truly have the best of both worlds. Every hotel is individual and is furnished in its own unique style, incorporating local flavour and flair. You can also rest assured you will receive the seamless service standards that you would expect from a major hotel brand.

An unrivalled location Boasting a long-established trading heritage, Bristol remains a thriving, cosmopolitan city with easy access to Bristol International Airport. Mercure Brigstow Hotel offers you a prime riverside position in the characterful Welsh Back waterfront area with the city centre an easy two minutes stroll away. As a guest, you have complimentary unlimited use of the superb exercise, sports and sauna facilities available at the nearby Welsh Back Squash & Health Club.

Two of Bristol's unique attractions include masterpieces of design and innovation from the great Victorian engineer Isambard Kingdom Brunel – the Clifton Suspension Bridge, his first major commission, and the world's first iron-hulled, steam-powered ocean liner, the SS Great Britain. Our staff will be pleased to give you more information about these and other entertainment and cultural attractions in the city.

Take a seat in our award-winning restaurant The spacious, sophisticated Ellipse Restaurant and Bar is the proud winner of an AA rosette and offers you a warm, inviting atmosphere in which to relax. Picture windows overlook the water where you can watch the world go by while you enjoy our chef's dedication to regional specialities from the UK and around the world, each prepared with the freshest, finest ingredients.

Ellipse Restaurant is open every day for lunch and dinner. Ellipse Bar and Lounge – open from 11am to 1am – has a delightful new brunch menu and a delicious, and affordable, wine list.

We invite you to experience Les Grands Vins Mercure. Every year in more than 10 countries, our wine experts conduct blind tests to select the wines that will be included in our signature Les Grands Vins' Mercure wine list for the following year.

But it's not just the fine wine you'll enjoy. We think you'll also find the affordable prices extremely palatable.

The place to meet You'll find the Mercure Brigstow makes a perfect venue for your business presentations, meetings and conferences. Our 12-seater boardroom is ideal for one-to-one meetings and smaller seminars. A theatre-style format in the Riverview suite creates an inspiring environment for conferences and meetings of up to 80 people. Whatever your business needs, the modern ambiance of our four air-conditioned meeting rooms make for pleasurable and productive events. WiFi is available in all the hotel's public areas and, for your presentation needs, each room is equipped with excellent online and audio-visual media.

The Mezzanine Gallery, overlooking the river, is ideal for buffet lunches, cocktail receptions and informal dinners.

Our dedicated Conference and Events team work with you to create the business occasion which suits your needs and budget. On the day of your event, a dedicated Meeting Host will be on hand at all times to aid in the smooth running of your day.

Individually Designed Delegate Packages We offer a range of delegate packages that can be put together to suit you. To find out more just call us, we'll be delighted to help.
