

Bristol Film & TV

Bristol is a UNESCO City of Film. This crossword celebrates some of the best features that have used the city as a backdrop and famous faces who have, at one point, called Bristol home.

Across

2. Heritage drama based on Jane Austen's unfinished final novel of the same name (8)
3. The actor, real name Archibald Leach, who was born in Bristol in 1904 and began his career at Bristol Hippodrome before leaving for the USA (4, 5)
6. Detective series starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Martin Freeman (8)
7. Movie in which a young James McAvoy stars as a Bristol University student determined to win a place on University Challenge (7, 3, 3)
8. Animation company who introduced the world to Wallace, Gromit and Shaun the Sheep (7)
9. Bristolian David Prowse portrayed the physical form of this character in the original Star Wars trilogy (5,5)
11. Oscar winners Daniel Day Lewis and Jeremy Irons are both alumni of this local Theatre School (7, 3, 3)
12. The longest running competitive short film and animation festival in the UK taking place at Watershed and Arnolfini every September (10)
13. The noughties teen comedy drama following dysfunctional sixth formers living in the city (5)

Down

1. Bristol played Peckham in this sitcom about brothers Del Boy and Rodney, a pair of wannabe 'millionaires' (4,5,3,6)
4. This drama, starring Aidan Turner and synonymous with the landscapes of Cornwall, had 18 sets at The Bottle Yard Studios based in South Bristol (7)
5. Russell '_____', surname of the Bristol born and bred stand-up comic (6)
10. The television channel whose Natural History Unit is based on Whiteladies Road, Bristol (3) visit

BRISTOL